

UX Certificate Program

UX Design Project

The UX Design Project is an individualized lab tailored for each UX Certificate program participant. It is focused on creating the UX for an app or website showcasing capabilities and processes learned within the UX Certificate program.